RESTORATION PLANS AT HISTORIC GREYSTONE MANSION

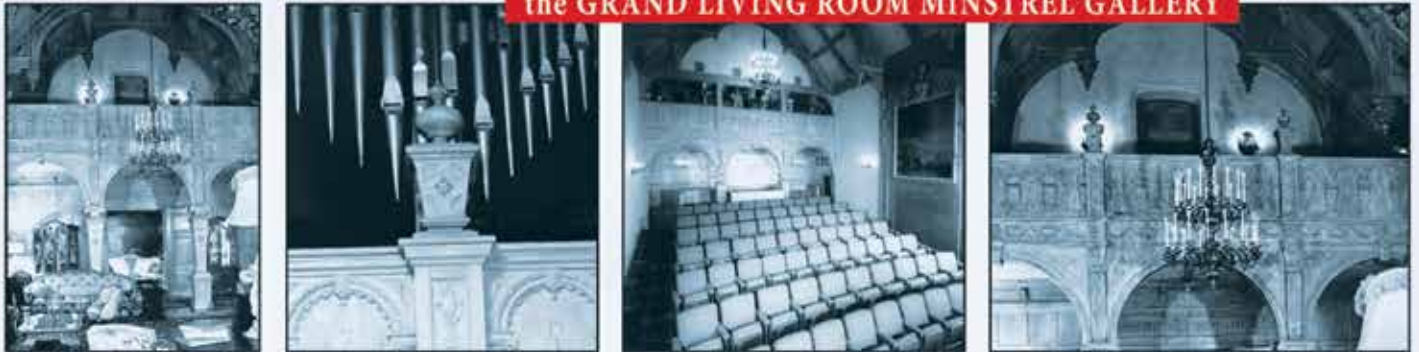

The Friends of Greystone are currently seeking Recognition Donors for these Projected Projects

the DOHENY LIBRARY MUSEUM

Due to the generous donations of the Doheny family the Friends of Greystone have been gifted exquisite items that once were used at Greystone Mansion. What better place to create a museum in the Mansion than in the original Library. Projected Cost with Recognition: $100,000-$175,000.

the GRAND LIVING ROOM MINSTREL GALLERY

The Friends of Greystone continue to research the last phase of restoration to the Gallery: the two "wood finials" which once adorned its balcony. AFI removed them during a project rental at Greystone, and The Friends of Greystone have been searching ever since for the best possible image of their authentic wood detailing in order to have new finials carved and installed. Projected Cost with Recognition: $15,000-$25,000.

the MOVIE THEATER

Friends of Greystone Chairs Jerry Linkin and Gay Parrish are currently working with the City of Beverly Hills on a plan to restore this historical space back to a fully functioning state-of-the-art theatre. Bruce Corwin, Metropolitan Theaters, and Frank Tees, MIT, have graciously provided their expertise and guidance while the Beverly Hills City Council has allocated funds to begin the investigation and prepare an infrastructure report. Projected cost with Title Recognition: approx. $2,000,000.

The Friends of Greystone hosted the Spring Greystone Mansion History Tour for BHHS Students in 11th Grade Advanced Placement United States History classes taught by teachers Malia Frutschy and Dan Moroaica. The students learn the importance of Greystone Mansion, the Doheny Family that lived and built the Greystone Estate, and their relationship to California History and the Tea Pot Dome Scandal.

BHHS STUDENT ESSAYS OR COMMENTS FROM THE TOUR March 29, 2015

Although I knew the Doheny family left a very heavy impact on the mansion, I always thought of them as rich people living in a marvelous house. Visiting the Greystone Mansion completely changed my perspective. I learned the significances of the many rooms and how they tied into the whole story about the Dohenys. Visiting historical landmarks is very beneficial to all students around the world, strengthening their knowledge, broadening their perspectives, and helping them explore much of what seemed impossible to understand. Lauren Hirsh, Ms. Frutschy's Student.

Before going to tour the mansion I actually had heard about it during one of my classes in APUSH. All I knew about it, however, was that it was a huge estate belonging to a wealthy businessman from long ago. When I went there, I didn't really expect to learn much more, but I was blown away by the flow of information. Through all these tours and visits to historical locations, I was able to come to the conclusion that physically visiting a specific place is much more effective than simply reading material out of a book. Will Kim, Ms. Frutschy's Student.

The Greystone Mansion taught me the details of the spirit behind the Roaring 20's and how people acted during the age. The extravagance of the manor demonstrated the value of material wealth to the prosperous. The different tiles, colors, stones, all showed how people enjoyed aesthetic beauty. The rooms dedicated to past-times like the theater, bowling alley, and the card room, depict the 20's love for entertainment. Historical landmarks are noteworthy in their ability to give a visual insight on historical events. Brendan Yoon, Ms. Frutschy's Student.

THE ASSOCIATION OF JUNIOR LEAGUE INTERNATIONAL April 16, 2015

The National Chapter of the Junior League hosted a magical evening at Greystone for over 600 members with an added historic tour lead by the Friends of Greystone Board of Directors. The Courtyard and Terrace served as the reception areas along with a Mariachi band that filled the courtyard with lively music.

The Junior League of Los Angeles, the Doheny Family and the Greystone Estate are all connected in history as follows: Mrs. Edward L. Doheny, Sr., in 1925, was a member of the original founding group of the Association of Junior Leagues International (AJLI). One year later it became known as the Junior League of Los Angeles (JLLA).

Mrs. Lucy Smith Doheny, wife of Edward L. Doheny, Jr., was President of the JLLA from 1927-1928. Lucy, her husband, and their five children moved into Greystone Mansion in September 1928.

Mrs. Lucy Smith Doheny remarried in 1935, changed her name to Mrs. Leigh Battson, was featured on the cover of the November 1935 issue of the Junior League News Los Angeles.

DOHENY GREYSTONE ESTATE VINTAGE KITCHEN PICKLE CLASSES July 12, 2015

The Institute of Domestic Technologies gourmet pickling may very well be the next "must know" food craft to brag about their class held in the historic Greystone Mansion kitchen. The class starts with a classic kosher dill pickle.

Using the traditional method of fermenting in a brine of only salt water, fresh dill, garlic and spices, they transform summer pickling cucumbers into something your "Bubbe" (that's Yiddish for Grandma) would be proud of. For their second pickle, they made Dilly Beans. Green beans fresh from the farmers' market are transformed with vinegar, spices and a simple water-bath canning process.

This is the perfect way to get a jump start on pickling season or consider entering your own pickle in the Beverly Hills Farmers' Market PickleFest Contest every August! INSTRUCTOR: Joseph Shuldiner, Institute Director.

Founded in 2001 and comprised solely of volunteers, the Friends of Greystone is a non-profit organization whose mission is to raise funds to restore, preserve and protect Greystone Mansion and Park, owned by the City of Beverly Hills and considered to be among California's most luxurious residences south of Hearst Castle. Included in our goals is to provide educational programs to students, residents of Beverly Hills and the general public. All funds raised go exclusively to the benefit of Greystone Mansion and Park.
