

HISTORIC BEVERLY HILLS DID YOU KNOW...

Written by Rebecca Pynoos

Established in 2012 as a response to threats that Architect Richard Neutra's Kronish House could be demolished, the Cultural Heritage Commission of the City of Beverly Hills has since been responsible for making recommendations to the City Council for landmarking residential and commercial structures. The gem in the city's crown, of course, is the Doheny Greystone Mansion and its gorgeous grounds, which were eligible as city landmarks because of their earlier recognition as a National Register property. The property continues to be beautifully restored partially thanks to the Friends of Greystone, an invaluable organization that breathes new life into the past through programs and preservation. While the Commission reviews and approves preservation efforts, it is truly the Friends of Greystone that have built on the legacy of the Doheny family by making it a special place.

BEVERLY HILLS IS HISTORIC

It has been my privilege and honor to serve on the Cultural Heritage Commission for the past seven years. Now, along with Greystone (Landmark Number 4), we have forty two official city landmarks that include Spanish colonial residences, civic buildings such as the City Hall, the Post Office (now part of the Wallis Annenberg Center of the Performing Arts), mid century modern marvels including Sidney Eisenstadt's office buildings and the Neutra Kronish home. Beverly Hills is fortunate to have such a range of important architecture spanning different eras and types. It's our hope to preserve the unique blend of architectural heritage that makes the City so distinctive.

Doheny Greystone Estate holds a special place in the minds and hearts of our residents. The current Chair of the Cultural Heritage Commission, Richard Waldow, provides his own historical perspective: "As someone who grew up in Beverly Hills, becoming familiar with Greystone as a kid, roaming the grounds with my friends in the 1960s before it was open to the public, sending my kids for summer camp to Catskills West at Greystone, watching the development and restoration and now having a role in recognizing it, is very rewarding." For me, serving on the Commission has provided an opportunity to dig deeper into Doheny Greystone's history and appreciate the efforts of the Friends of Greystone to maintain its beauty and play an important role in the city's culture.

DESCRIPTION: As part of its mission to restore and preserve the Doheny Greystone Mansion in Beverly Hills, the Friends of Greystone seek financial sponsorship to renovate the Estate's original movie theater. The inclusion of a private room in the theater was far ahead of its time. The first talkies were being released when the forty seat theater made its debut from a room off the main entrance to the fifty-five room Mansion. Our goal is to restore the theater to the push button movie palace it once was, with state-of-the-art sound and electronic equipment. Once all of the proposed elements are completed, the theater will be used to introduce visitors to the property for cultural and educational purposes, as well as for rental for private screenings.

DATE OF ORIGIN: 1927-1928

Dimensions: Entire room was known as a "tennis court shaped theater"

Approximate Cost: $1,000,000. Please Inquire

CURRENT STATE OF THEATER:

The American Film Institute (AFI) left Doheny Greystone Estate in 1982 and since then the theater and screening room have remained closed and unused. American Film Institute (AFI) rented Doheny Greystone Estate from the City of Beverly Hills from 1965 to 1982 and altered the original theater to fit their requirements, of which remnants still remain today (see photo above). In the last ten years the City of Beverly Hills has done mold abatement and ensured that the theater was safe to walk inside. The projection booth remains closed, no historic pictures of this space are known to exist at this time with exception of above circa 1960 photo that was given to the Friends of Greystone by the American Film Institute (AFI).

RESTORATION PROCESS INCLUDES:

- Removal of existing theater seats placed by AFI and replace with appropriate seating.
- Identify any repairs and/or replacement work needing to be done.
- Identification of historic elements to be preserved.
- Decorative wood ceiling to be cleaned and repaired due to sustained moisture damage.
- Decorative wall sconces to be cleaned, rewired and replaced.
- Electrical engineer to address heating, air conditioning, plumbing and life safety (alarms, sprinklers).
- Investigation and testing of roofing, flashing and roof drainage.

Despite the city's tall buildings and traffic, there's plenty of nature to explore in the area. Forget what you know about rush-hour traffic, award shows, and pipe dreams of stardom, because Hollywood already has glimmering natural gems of its own. Here's where to escape the smoggy skyline.

GREYSTONE MANSION

From scenic outlooks to serene retreats, Greystone Mansion and its surrounding gardens retain the impeccable landscape from its heyday as a private estate in the late 1920s. A traditional English lawn edged by roses and a manicured walkway bordered by towering Cypress trees are reminiscent of European villa design, while the rock creek and lower pond filled with koi fish and red-eared turtles remember a time when a waterfall cascaded down the property. The surface hides a reservoir underground, supplying water throughout Beverly Hills. Both the grounds and parking are free to visit, and informative tours of the castle interiors can be booked online.

VISIT GREYSTONE ESTATE

In the fame game, Greystone Mansion (greystonemansion.org) doesn't roll off the tongue like Tom Cruise or Julia Roberts, but if you're interested in a place that has been the backdrop in more than 137 movies, television shows, and music videos, this is the place to go. The extravagant Gothic-inspired home was originally owned by the heir to an oil and gold empire who, in a real-life plot twist, was shot dead in what was an apparent murder-suicide not long after the building was finished. The building itself is only occasionally opened to the public, but the estate's immaculate gardens are open daily and used by locals and tourists for picnics, exercise and, thanks to its prime location high on a hill, a great place to go for views of the City of Angels.

BEST KEPT SECRET TOUR

THE DOHENY GREYSTONE MANSION

Our guests experienced the Gilded Age of Architecture as they explored the 46,000 square foot historic Doheny Greystone Mansion located in Beverly Hills. Built in 1927-1928, and designed by renown Architect Gordon B. Kaufmann, this magnificent mansion was once the home of Edward Laurence Doheny, Jr., his wife Lucy and their five children. Often referred to as the Hearst Castle of Southern California, the Doheny Greystone Estate is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and will forever be preserved. The guests enjoyed their self-guided tour as they moved within this fifty-five room home while enjoying the historic photographs on display that share the story of what life looked like back in 1928 and 1945.

Gary Greene, Esq. and His Big Band of Barristers is America's No. 1 legal band composed of lawyers, judges, law students and legal staff, performing music from the Golden Era of the big bands. Greene, the long-time concertmaster of the Jr. Philharmonic, founder-conductor of the Los Angeles Lawyers Philharmonic and its chorus, Legal Voices, organized the band in December 2011.

Our guests took a step back in time to the 1930s and 1940s when the Doheny family resided at Doheny Greystone Mansion while they enjoyed a lovely summer evening under the stars with the ambiance of dinner and dancing to the sounds of that era presented by Gary Greene, Esq. and His Big Band of Barristers. Music made famous by Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman and all the greats of that classic big band generation filled the memorable evening.

DONOR RECOGNITION WALL

The Friends of Greystone's goal was to create a donor recognition wall that honored major financial contributions to Doheny Greystone Estate by individuals or companies. Our vision was dedicated on September 30, 2018 by City of Beverly Hills Honorable Vice Mayor John Mirisch along with members of the Doheny family and many donors and supporters.

Our donor recognition wall constitutes a major aesthetic feature of the iconic image of the famous Doheny Greystone Estate gates at 501 Doheny Road where for years guests and family used this entrance up the winding road to the mansion's front door. The Dedicated Recognition Wall is located on the north wall of the old Fire Station facing the garden staircase as you descend from the upper parking lot.

The donor wall was sponsored by the Friends of Greystone with an in-kind donation by Southern California Bronze Company.

We thank our Friends of Greystone Committee Chair Arline Pepp and her Co-Chairs Betsy Weisman and Suzanne Furst for their years of tireless work on this project that now can be viewed by all guests visiting the park.

GRAND ENTRY PHASE III FIRST AND SECOND FLOOR

Wood staircase handrails, newel posts, balustrades and wall wood paneling

1945 Chinoiserie decor
by Mrs. Doheny/Battson

1964 Disorderly Orderly

Present

DESCRIPTION: The Grand Entry to the Mansion is the only doorway used by all guests since September 1928 and the first most important impression of the two floors grandeur of this Gordon B. Kaufmann designed home from the gilded age of architecture.

DATE OF ORIGIN: 1926-28

Dimensions: Entire first and second floor wood staircase and wall paneling

Materials: Oak and walnut

Approximate Cost to Restore: Unknown

CURRENT STATE OF GRAND ENTRY FIRST AND SECOND FLOOR:

In 1928, the wood was a stained dark brown representative of the time. In 1945, Mrs. Doheny redecorated the mansion in a Chinoiserie décor and painted all the wood white and then the final color teal to match her Chinoiserie furnishings. In 1964, the movie The Disorderly Orderly was filmed in the mansion and they painted this entire area light hospital pea green. In 1965, when the City of Beverly Hills rented the mansion to the American Film Institute for 10 years the wood staircase handrails, newel posts, balustrades and wall wood paneling in the main entrance were sandblasted by AFI to remove "hospital green" overpaint applied during the movie shoot in 1968 of the Disorderly Orderly. After the sandblasting to remove the pea hospital green "movie" paint it is clear that remnants of the historic teal color were still present. According to an individual involved with the sandblasting the wood was subsequently coated with a layer of "...special wood oil to preserve the brown wood color." After AFI departed the City of Beverly Hills applied a plastic clear coating material to the wood surfaces. In some areas the plastic clear coating material was modified with pigments to cover exposed historic coatings that were not removed with abrasive cleaning which is what gives the wood a plastic look today.

RESTORATION PROCESS INCLUDES:

Continue the testing with the addition of various larger areas to determine the final method of reapplying a tinted coating to the stripped wood

Test methods will be tinted wax and *shellac varnish with a wax coat

Provide information for cost estimating purposes

A report documenting the methods and materials used in this treatment will be written. Maintenance recommendations will be included with this report.

#MyGreystoneMemory

The Friends of Greystone is constantly seeking new ways to educate the public about the wonders of the Doheny Greystone Estate. While longtime residents of Beverly Hills and Los Angeles may have always known about our prized historic treasure, younger generations or those new to the area may not be aware of the gem tucked away in their backyard. One of the ways in which the Friends of Greystone is broadening their public relations scope is by increasing our social media base and using platforms such as Instagram to reach a younger demographic or those simply interested in the history and beauty of the mansion and surrounding grounds. By posting photos of the current state of the Doheny home, as well as historical photos, we can give our followers a glimpse of life at the estate now as well as when the Doheny's originally occupied it. We also love to re-post photos from our guests, whether it be from a visit, a wedding, or from one of our Friends of Greystone events. Simply tag us at @friendsofgreystone and don't forget to give us a follow! In addition to historical and guest's photos, we'll be posting lots of great information about upcoming events. And don't forget to watch our Insta stories for tours of the home and more! Follow us on Instagram, @friendsofgreystone, and use our hashtags, #friendsofgreystone #mygreystonememory!
